36 HOLE SCRATCH OPEN
MEN'S SINGLES STROKE PLAY

(Holder : Giles Legg – Ferndown)

- ENTRIES: Open to men with a playing handicap not exceeding 5 under the standard scratch score and handicap scheme of the Council of National Golf Unions. Entries must be made on the entry form provided and the playing handicap must be certified by the Secretary of the player's Home Club.
- ENTRY FEE: The entry fee is £37 for visitors and £27 to members of Parkstone Golf Club to include a buffet lunch. No refunds on entry fees after draw has been made.
- START TIMES: Start times will be posted onto the club website and players will be notified by email or post.
- CONDITIONS OF PLAY: The current general conditions relating to all English Golf Union Championships and Tournaments will apply to this Championship. The Wimborne Cup will be decided by Stroke Play over 36 holes. The winner will be the competitor with the lowest aggregate gross score. The Organising Committee's decision in all matters is final.
- BALLOT: Where entries exceed 60 in number, there will be a ballot. However, the Organising Committee reserve the right for 5 members from Parkstone, with handicaps of 3 or better to be included in the final start sheet.
- PRACTICE Competitors will have courtesy of the course during the week prior to the event and will be limited to one round per person. Please Telephone the Pro Shop on 708092.
- PRIZES: The prize fund will be to the value of £1225, covering the leading ten places, and shall be presented at the Club following the day's play. Any other prizes will be decided at the discretion of the organising Committee. All vouchers will be redeemable at any PGA shop. In the event of a tie, 1st place for the Wimborne Cup will be decided through a sudden death play off. Other tied places shall be decided on the last 9, 6, 3, 1 hole count back. No competitor may take more than one prize.

Distance Measuring Devices are permitted.
